DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 15, there is lack of antecedent basis for "the hopper". It is unclear if the hopper is a required element of the claimed structure. In claim 17, there is lack of antecedent basis for "the drive mechanism". It is unclear if "the drive mechanism" refers to the previously recited "driving device". It is unclear if the "driving mechanism" is a required element of the claimed structure.

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. While it is unclear what is being claimed, to the extent that "the drive mechanism" is meant to refer to the "driving device" recited in claim 15, as described in the original filing, the device for rotating the rolls does not also move the roll frames toward or away from the extrusion cylinder.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1723

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 10-138243. JP-138243 discloses a rubber kneading machine comprising an upper roll (4/57) and a lower roll (3/56), an adjusting device (62) configured to allow a gap between the upper roll and the lower roll to be adjusted; a driving device configured to rotate the upper roll and the lower roll (see [0016]); a screw extruder (2/51) including a screw extruder main body having screws (7 / 54, 55) and configured to supply the rolls; a circulating mechanism including a winding control mechanism configured to selectively wind the rubber sheet onto the upper roll by differentiating rotational speeds of the upper roll and the lower roll and a carrying mechanism (including 12) configured to send the rubber sheet coming off the upper roller to a hopper (see Fig. 1); and a extrusion cylinder accommodating the screws (see Figs. 1 and 2). It is not expressly stated that the extrusion assembly is detachable; however, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have made the cylinder detachable to facilitate assembly, cleaning, or repair. See In re Dulberg, USPQ 348, 349 (CCPA 1961) regarding the obviousness of making parts detachable.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. In claim 1, it is considered that "the driving mechanism" is a required element of the claimed structure. Claims 1-10 and 12-14 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. The previously rejected claims, as currently amended, have been allowed.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

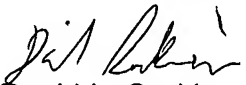

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
